

MRS. PAULINE BOLAND STEINWINDER

Mrs. Pauline Boland Steinwinder was born in 1869 at Jasper, Ala., and died at Bellamy, Ala., May 19, 1931.

Being reared in a parsonage home, she enjoyed blessings that many girls are deprived of. About the time her father, Dr. J.M. Boland transferred from the Alabama Conference to Kentucky, and afterward requested by Bishop Galloway to accept an appointment in West Virginia, she was married to Mr. T.G. Steinwinder of Whitfield, Ala., where they have lived since.

She truly numbered her friends by her acquaintances and wielded such a Christian influence in the community that many mourn their loss in her going away. She saw the need of a church in the community, not alone for her children, but those of her neighbors also, and worked to build and establish it. She became stewardess, Sunday School superintendent and leader of activities until a year ago she felt, on account of failing health, it was due the Conference and Church members that she resign; but her prayers did not cease. She was faithful to the end.

Besides her husband, she leaves three sons, Charlie, James Boland, Jarman, and two daughters, Mrs. Pauline James and Miss Susan Alice; one sister, Mrs. Alice Boland Hearn, of Meridian, Miss., and one brother, Mr. Marvin D. Boland of Tacoma, Wash.

She was buried in the family cemetery at Whitfield beneath a bank of floral offerings of sympathy from a host of loyal friends. She has passed to realms above out a world of strife; to receive through our Father's love the reward of a well-spent life.
